

Wild Bill Jones - Alison Krauss

Bluegrass Classic, Key of B My Key: ____

INTRO: 2X ( 1 , 1 , 1 5 , 1 ), 1

As 1 I, went out, for to take a little walk
I 1 came upon that 5 Wild Bill 1 Jones
He was 1 walkin' and a-talkin', by my true lover's side
And I 1 begged him to 5 leave, her a- 1 lone

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

He 1 said, My age is twenty one
Too 1 old, to 5 be con- 1 trolled
I 1 pulled my revolver, from my side
And 1 I destroyed that 5 poor, boy's 1 soul

INSTRUMENTAL

He 1 reeled and he staggered and he fell to the ground
1 Then he gave one 5 dying 1 moan
He 1 wrap,ped his arms around my little girl's neck
Saying 1 Honey, won't you 5 take, me 1 home

INSTRUMENTAL

So 1 put, them handcuffs on, me boys
And 1 lead me to that 5 freight car 1 gate
I 1 have, no friends or relations there
No 1 one for to 5 go, my 1 bail

INSTRUMENTAL

So 1 pass, around, that ol' longneck bottle
And we'll 1 all, go 5 on a 1 spree,
To- 1 day saw the last, of Wild Bill Jones
And to- 1 morrow'll be the 5 last of 1 me
