Her 5 daddy hated his tattoos, but she was-in love with a baby due in Sep- 1 tember, early September
So they 5 called the kinfolk set up the bar, threw some chairs out in the yard
And got a 1 preacher, Pentecostal preacher
And the 6m man, on the 5 ev,ening 4 news Promised 6m sun,ny and 5 seventy 4 two, but

1 . Can't trust the weather man, makes his livin' off a-lucky chance
4 . Whole crowd was soakin' wet, 3^b mud all 2m over 3^b momma's 7^b dress
1 . No sign, of the sun but-a, sure fire sign of things, to 4 come 5 . One thing, you can plan is you can't trust the weather 1 man

5 Six months after-the knot got tied, there were diapers and a double wide
They couldn't 1 pay for, one day they had a brainstorm
She 5 pulled the gun he cracked the safe, they pulled it off, when they-pulled away
They were 1 laughin', 'til they-saw lights flashin' Forecast 6m on the 5 radi- 4 o, never 6m ev,en 5 men,tioned 4 snow, but

1 . Can't trust, the weather man, makes his livin' off a lucky chance
4 . Cop car hit a path of ice, 3^b hit a 2m rail flipped 3^b on its 7^b side
1 . That couple got away, cops, only had one thing to 4 blame Shook 5 off the snow, threw up their hands said you can't trust the weather, 4 man,
