

Slow Train Through Georgia

Special Consensus Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of D My Key: ____

INTRO: 1 , 5 1 , 4 , 4 1
4 , 4 1 , 1 6m , 5 1 , (extra two beats)

1 Down by the county bridge, the 5 gon,dolas 1 roll
4 Hauling down to Birmingham, a dirty half slag 1 coal
4 I should let her move me on, come sunshine rain or 1 drought
1 Just like, the 6m circle says, 5 Southern, serves the 1 South

CHORUS:

And it's 1 hardship and troubles, Lord you 5 know, I've had 1 some 4 Getting older everyday, I'm a fair, weather 1 bum
Let-me 4 tell you, good people here, it's just, about 1 time
To catch a 1 slow train, through 6m Georgia
And 5 ease my worried 1 mind

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

1 Forty miles an hour, she's 5 rolling down the 1 line
4 Greasy rail, red clay trail, through the longsome 1 pines
And 4 anywhere that the sunshine shines down
Is where I long to 1 be
I'll let the 1 Sunshine Southern 6m Special, 5 roll me to the 1 sea

CHORUS / INSTRUMENTAL

Lord I 1 wish-I, was living day by day, 5 somewhere down the 1 track
4 Come on down my old pal, you know we'll not look 1 back
And 4 I'll take down this old guitar, and play her every 1 day
And let-the 1 slow train, through 6m Georgia
5 Roll my blues a- 1 way

CHORUS

OUTRO: 1 1 , 5 1 , 1

1 = D
4 = G
5 = A
6 = B
