

Love and Wealth

Bluegrass Classic, Key of A My Key: ____

Darling 1 I'm all alone, in our 4 little mountain 1 home
It's 1 empty cold and loveless now in- 5 side
For your 1 childish love and vows
Lasted 4 only one short 1 year
Now you've 1 gone away to 6m be an- 5 other's 1 bride

CHORUS: 1 You, will 4 never know the 1 pain
1 That, I 5 felt the day you 1 left
4 Should, you ever wed a- 1 gain
5 Let, me wish you love and 1 wealth

While the 1 same old whippoorwill
Breaks the 4 silence on the 1 hill
I 1 stand and gaze upon a faded 5 wall
Where your 1 picture used to hang
In a 4 little golden 1 frame
And the 1 vision of your 6m smile I 5 still re- 1 call

CHORUS

Though they 1 say we live and learn
From our 4 sorrow we must 1 turn
And be 1 able to forget, sad memor- 5 y
Let me 1 wish you love and wealth
May you 4 take no careless 1 steps
That my 1 broken heart will 6m last e- 5 ternal- 1 ly

CHORUS

SLOW DOWN: 5 Let, me wish you love and, 1 wealth
