

Papaw Taught Me - Blue Moon Rising

Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of D My Key: ____

INTRO: 4 , 1 , 4 , 1

He never owned a 1 tractor, just a piece of land
Worked it with a 1 bay mule, he was-a heck of a hand
Raised his 4 children, behind a four foot 1 plow
There used to be men 4 like him
But there ain't none 1 now (extra 2 beats)

He-never went to 1 school, couldn't read or write
Made his livin'-the 1 hard way, workin' day and night
Had a-double barreled 4 shotgun, if you crossed his 1 path
Smoked his share of 4 Camels, nothin' wrong with 1 that

CHORUS:

Followed his 4 footsteps, watching all he 1 did
Ten years 4 old, just a-dirty faced 5 kid
Asking 4 questions, tryin' to under- 1 stand
Papaw 4 taught me, how to be a 1 man

INSTRUMENTAL: 1 , 1 , 1 , 1 , 4 , 1 , 4 , 1

Married his 1 sweetheart, in forty three
Made it through 1 some hard times, raised a family
How he-ever 4 made it, is a myster- 1 y
With a-ten dollar 4 milk cow, and some dry corn 1 seed

Papaw 4 taught me, how to be a 1 man

OUTRO: Same as INTRO
