

Queen Anne's Lace - Del McCoury

Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of E My Key: ____

INTRO: 1 , 5 , 1 , 1

With every 1 golden curl in place, she's as 4 fine as Queen Anne's 1 lace
And no 1 one could ever fault, the way she 5 looks tonight
The man 1 standing, by her side, shows her 4 off with-such eager 1 pride
Seems 1 since I saw her 5 last she's done all 1 right

She could never 1 place me, in her mind
For me the 4 years had not been 1 kind She'd 1 never see, the boy she knew in the 5 man I've grown to be
From her 1 station, and her place, she'd never 4 recognize my 1 face
I have 1 fallen like a windblown 5 leaf from her memo- 1 ry

CHORUS:

For she's 4 traded all her pain
For bright 1 lights and chilled champagne
And I'm 1 sure her new found friends all think they 5 know just where she's been Yes they 1 think they, know her well, all the 4 stories, I could 1 tell
She's as 1 fine as Queen Anne's 5 lace, but I knew her 1 when

INSTRUMENTAL: 1 , 1 , 4 , 1 , 1 , 1 , 5 , 5 1 , 1 , 4 , 1 , 1 , 5 , 1 , 1

Now it's 1 hard to believe I know
But she once 4 loved me, long a- 1 go
And I 1 suppose I should be hurtin', just to 5 see her once again
Ah but 1 now that she's grown so proud, I wouldn't, 4 want her any 1 how She's as 1 fine as Queen Anne's 5 lace, but I knew her 1 when
