

You Can Share My Blanket - J.D. Crowe

Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of F My Key: ____

INTRO: 1 , 1 , 1

When you 1 say, you love me, I don't 4 know what you mean
But it 2 seems,, like I 5 should
So 1 if I say I'm bruised and torn
And 4 other loves should 5 want me
4 You won't mind it 5 this one is for 1 good

CHORUS: I don't 5 know if I can take it
If 1 we can really 6m make it
I'll 5 never know a love without an 1 end
But if you 5 really think we can
Then 1 you can share my 6m blanket,
4 And we'll 5 see what happens 1 then,

When your 1 coat falls from your shoulders
In a 4 heap, upon the floor
And the 2 door,, behind is 5 closed
I don't 1 know if I can stand it, it's an 4 awful lot to 5 handle
4 Taking scraps of 5 all the things I 1 know

CHORUS

When you 1 say, you love me I don't 4 know what to say
I'm a- 2 fraid,, to go a- 5 lone
A- 1 fraid that you might hurt me, un- 4 able to be 5 certain
A- 4 fraid that I might 5 turn and you'll be 1 gone

CHORUS

TO FADE: 1 , 4 , 2 , 5 ...

1 = F
2 = G
4 = B ^b
5 = C
6 = D
