Well it 1 ain't no fun, starin' down the barrel
Of a 4 forty four revolver
That 5 bank was easy, enough to rob
If I 4 hadn't got shot in the 1 shoulder
Well I 1 made my run but the loss of blood
Stopped me 4 just short of the border
Now I'm 5 doomed to die, by the ones who ride
In the 4 name of 5 law and 1 order,

CHORUS: But it should have been 6m different
Fate could have been 1 changed
Should have made me a 6m livin'
Instead of makin' a 5 name
Should have found re- 6m ligion
Instead of findin' a 1 gun,
But it's too late 4 now, I'm, a 5 dead man, on the 1 run,

INSTRUMENTAL: 1 , 1 , 4 , 4 , 5 , 5 , 4 , 1

Mom would 1 try her best but was laid to rest
When 4 I was only seven
And-I can 5 only pray, that she thinks to say
A-good 4 word for me in 1 heaven
I can 1 tell, that the posse's gettin' close
I can 4 hear their horses runnin'
'F-they don't 5 kill me now, by noon tomorrow
I'll 4 face my 5 exe- 1 cution,

CHORUS

But it's too late 4 now, I'm, a 5 dead man, on the 1 run,
