

Tear My Stillhouse Down - Nashville Bluegrass Band

Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of D. My Key: ____

INTRO: 1 , 4 , 1 5 , 1

Put no 1 stone, at my head, no 4 flowers on my 4⁷ tomb
No 1 gold, plated sign, in a 5 marble pillared room
There's 1 one, thing I want, when they 4 lay me in the 4⁷ ground
When I 1 die, 5 tear my stillhouse 1 down, 1 , 1

When 1 I, was a lad, way 4 back in the 4⁷ hills
I 1 laughed at the men, who 5 tended those stills
But that 1 old mountain shine, it 4 caught me some- 4⁷ how
When I 1 die, 5 tear my stillhouse 1 down

CHORUS: Oh 4 tear my stillhouse down, let it go to rust
Don't 1 leave no trace of the hiding place
Where I 1 made that evil stuff
For 4 all my time and money, no profit did I see
That 1 old, copper kettle, was the 5 death of 1 me

INSTRUMENTAL: 4 , 1 , 5 , 1 , 4 , 1 5 , 1

Oh 1 tell, all your children, 4 hell ain't no dream
1 Satan he lives, in my, 5 whisky machine
Oh, 1 in my time of dying, I 4 know, where I'm bound
When I 1 die, 5 tear my stillhouse 1 down

CHORUS

INSTRUMENTAL: 4 , 4 , 1 , 1 , 4 , 4

That 1 old, copper kettle, was the 5 death of 1 me

1 = D
4 = G
