

Bluestone Mountain - Mark Brinkman

Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of G My Key: ____

INTRO: 6m , 5 , 4 3 , 6m , 6m

VERSE 1:

If you 6m travel to the hills, of West Vir- 5 ginia
4 Down, where the 3 green, briar 6m winds
Just 6m turn, your ear toward Bluestone 5 Mountain
You 4 just might hear the 3 sound of a young girl 6m cryin'

CHORUS:

1 Some say it's the wind, through the 5 canyon
As it 4 blows, a lonesome 2 sound, through the 3 pines
1 Some say it's the sound, of, the 5 river
But 4 I say it's just 3 Cora Jones, 6m cryin'

See 6m Cora lived alone on Bluestone 5 Mountain
With a 4 little blonde haired 3 boy there by her 6m side
The 6m bloody Civil War made her a 5 widow
And little 4 Jacob, was her 3 lifeblood and her 6m pride

CHORUS

INSTRUMENTAL: 1 , 5 , 4 2 , 3 , 1 , 5 , 4 3 , 6m , 6m

Well, 6m sometimes I wonder if God 5 watches
4 Sometimes life can 3 turn in cruel 6m ways
On a 6m cold, autumn day in late Oc- 5 tober
Little 4 Jacob, wandered 3 in Scott Hollow 6m Cave
Now, the 6m caves, of West Virginia, run for- 5 ever
Like a 4 maze, of black 3 ribbon through the 6m ground
6m Cora went to search, for little 5 Jacob
But 4 neither Jake nor 3 Cora would be 6m found
